

Martin Luther King Essay Contest

On Sunday, January 15th, Temple Adas Shalom will be hosting an MLK program at 3:00 p.m. Winners of this essay contest will have their essays read at this historic event, as Jews from Temple Adas Shalom, Christians from St. James AME Church, and Muslims from Masjid Al-Falaah join together to honor the legacy of Martin Luther King!

Please write a one page essay titled: Learning to Live Together in Peace and Harmony in 2017. Your essay should offer suggestions of how we, as Jews and Americans, can live in harmony with people of other religions and other nationalities. Essays are due by Sunday, January 8th. Essays should be submitted to the Religious School Principal. One winner from grades 3-5, 6-7, and 8-10 will be honored at the MLK program. Any questions can be directed to the Principal at principal@templeadasshalom.org.

The Beloved Community: Love Your Neighbor and Learn To Live Together

1. How old are you? _____ 2. What is your ethnicity? _____

3. What are your hobbies and interests? _____

4. What are some of your pet peeves? _____

5. What are your hopes for this coming year for our American society? _____

6. What are your fears for this coming year for our American society? _____

7. How can we learn to live together in this diverse society with

- multiculturalism? _____

- gender/sexuality inclusion? _____

- class distinctions? _____

8. What would your message be to the gathering of a Jewish, African American Christian, and Muslim congregations who are seeking to learn to live together? _____

9. How can we, as citizens of Maryland, fulfill our goal of “Love Your Neighbor, and how to learn to live together inspired by MLK”?
