A “DIAMOND CELEBRATION” THANK YOU

My heart bursts with gratitude to all of you who planned and attended and supported the Diamond Gala last Saturday night October 20, 2018. This must surely be what King David meant when he composed: kosi r'vaya, “my cup runs over” in Psalm 23. The ambience was truly freilach, a Yiddish word that means festive and joyful. Your warm appreciation of the pastoral care and the educational initiatives that I have tried to bring to the Temple Adas Shalom community means so much to me. There were so many who contributed to the success of the evening and I fear that I will leave some of your names out of this thank you missive. So I will mention the two chairs, Alli Baker and Lisa Feulner, and Courtney Washburn Marcheski, Amy Schoenberger, Kristi Schwartz, Mark To the sponsors, including The Perfect Party, Klein's ShopRite, Dancing With Friends, One Rock Studio, Saxon Jewelers, Midway Liquors, the merchants and congregational donors of the Chinese Auction boxes, and others, thank you so much.

And to you, beloved congregants, my heartfelt gratitude for allowing me the privilege of being rabbi of this temple.

I will always cherish the memories of this sparkling diamond of an evening.

NATURE VS. NURTURE TORAH STUDY

November 17 at 10:00 AM

All New Format

Have you seen the astounding documentary “Three Identical Strangers”? Identical triplet boys were adopted by 3 families during the 1970's and find each other as college students. Ecstatic happiness and instant celebrity ultimately lead to dark revelations of a controlled experiment. Come explore with us the Jewish angles of this remarkable true story: the boys were Jewish at birth, Jewish adoption agency, Jewish researchers, Jewish adoptive families.

In honor of Parshat Toldot, the Biblical tale of the twin sons of Isaac and Rebekah: Jacob and Esau, join us in learning what our tradition teaches about the question of Nature vs. Nurture.

Co-Presidents' Message
Linda Needel & Wendy Drabinski

Our building project is just about complete. There are just a few things to finish. Although “build it and they will come” is a popular mantra, your board of trustees is not counting on the renovation alone to be the driving force to bring new members into our community and retain our current members. In October, the board attended a learning session with Allan Hirsh from the URJ to develop a process to bring in new members and engage our current members. We started with asking “why.” Why did you join the temple? Why do you stay? From the answers to these questions we will form a new mission statement, vision, and strategic plan.

We are also reviewing the data from the congregational survey and board survey with a board member of the URJ and will incorporate what we learn into our strategic plan. Most of the board felt their “why” included making a difference and creating relationships based on trust. If you have a different “why,” please let us know.

Once we establish our “why,” we will develop ways to fulfill it, and we will start getting the word out to the community. This will differentiate us from other religious institutions in the area and build interest. We will keep you updated as we go through this process. If you have skills in strategic planning or marketing and are interested in helping us grow our community, please contact us.

Wendy and Linda

Religious Practices Message

Mark Wolkow & Melissa Brown

Slow down, you move too fast...

As the days get shorter and things seems to slow down, we encourage you to take the time to find balance in your life. To help you take action on this important goal, we have some great opportunities for you this month. We begin with an ASTY Service on November 9. Please come out and support our youth as they lead us in a meaningful and spiritual service.

You won't want to miss the Congregational Meeting on Sunday, November 11. Important decisions are being made and we need your input!

Rabbi will host services on November 16, along with musical guest Richard Hoffman. And on November 23, work off your turkey by keeping up with service leaders Brad and Ann Cogan, with music by Pat Wolkow. Ann will certainly help you find some balance with her sermon, and Brad will give Sig Gast a break by chanting Torah.

1. We finish the month with a Daven & Dine service on November 30, which begins at 6:00 pm, ends at 6:45, and is followed by dinner out with friends and family! The theme is Attitude of Gratitude.

See you in shul!

B'Shalom

Mark Wolkow & Melissa Brown, RPC Co-chairs

Greetings from the Sisterhood! Elise Woods

Greetings from the Sisterhood!

As many of you know, the Sisterhood supports our congregation's families by providing scholarships to encourage youth attendance at Jewish summer camps and NFTY events. As a result of a very generous donation from Rabbi Gila to the Sisterhood, we will be able to significantly increase the amount of these scholarships this year. This is very exciting! We want to thank Rabbi Gila for her commitment to our families and we look forward to being able to write larger checks this year. The Sisterhood Board will be meeting on November 12 at 6:30 pm at my home (1703 Fleetwood Drive, Bel Air, MD) to discuss scholarships and camperships for the year. In order for your family to be considered, please submit your applications immediately. If you are in need of an application, please contact me.

On November 13, at 6:00 pm, we will be holding our Fall Paid-up Membership event at the synagogue. There will be a light supper with seated yoga and meditation. Please refer to the flyer included with the newsletter for additional information. Ladies, you are welcome to join the Sisterhood that evening and guests are welcome too. There will also be a gift shop sale beginning at 5:15 pm in our new store.

As Chanukah is very early this year (the first candle lighting is on December 2), the Sisterhood will pull out all of the Chanukah goodies for its annual Chanukah gift shop sale on November 18. Please contact Pat Wolkow or Denise Gordon if you are available to help that morning.

As a reminder, the Sisterhood sponsors the Tree of Life sculpture in the synagogue lobby. Included with this newsletter is a flyer that can be used to order leaves that may be inscribed to highlight or commemorate joyous events like births, weddings, anniversaries, graduations, Confirmations, Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, or to honor parents, family, and friends. Please consider inscribing a leaf for your next special event. Your memories will endure in our synagogue for a lifetime!

Tree of Life

"It Is A Tree Of Life To Those Who Uphold It." Proverbs 3:18

The Tree of Life sculpture in our lobby was done by the renowned synagogue artist Sanford Werfel at his studio in Avenel, NJ. The branches of the tree form the Hebrew words "Etz Chaim". The stones at the roots of the Tree are symbolic of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. The golden leaves may be inscribed to highlight or commemorate such joyous events as births, weddings, anniversaries, graduations, Confirmations, Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, or to honor parents, family or friends. The stones are to memorialize parents, family members or friends.

Share the joy by inscribing your family "simchas" on our synagogue's Tree of Life...a permanent dedication to the meaningful, happy events that touch our lives. A lovely certificate will be sent to those you are honoring.

HJC Early Learning Center News Kristi Schwartz

Hello TAS Congregants! Our school has been open for just over a month now and we have been busy, busy, busy. As this goes to press, we will have just hosted a Trunk-or-Treat for our students and alumni. At this event, we strive to gather 100 bags of food for The Kitchen Door, a food pantry located in Havre de Grace.

What do we do with leftover Halloween candy?

The ELC collects a small box or two to send Treats for Our Troops.

What is our next event? Mommy Mall!

Wednesday, November 7th from 10am – 7pm.

What is Mommy Mall? It is an assortment of vendors/crafters, many with cash-and-carry items, that will give a portion of their sales to the ELC. This event is perfect to start your holiday shopping or even just to buy a treat for yourself.

Adolph Nord Religious School News Jennifer Bober & Cheryl Conley

The religious school year is off to a great start! The students have done art projects in the new art room and yoga in the new multipurpose room. We are so happy to have classrooms for all of our students in the building together.

Chanukah comes early this year so the Sisterhood's annual Chanukah gift shop sale will be early too. All the classes will get to walk through the sale and shop for gifts for the holiday on November 18. Please join your child during their class shopping time to get gifts and gelt for the holiday.

Mark your calendars and plan to attend the first grade-level service of the school year. This year we've combined the youngest grades together: the pre-K, first and second graders will be singing Chanukah songs and leading a few prayers on Friday, December 7. Please join us in the sanctuary for this shortened service beginning at 6:45 pm.

The Religious School Committee is looking for new members. If you are interested please let us know.

Shalom,
Cheryl and Jenn

TEMPLE ADAS SHALOM
WALL OF REMEMBRANCE DEDICATION

In loving memory of
DR. DAVID ROSENBLATT

The Board of Temple Adas Shalom (TAS) passed a motion to name the wall outside the social hall in honor of Dr. David Rosenblatt. This dedication will coincide with the opening of our renovated Temple in the fall 2018 timeframe. Dr. Dave was a TAS member for almost 40 years and made many positive contributions to our synagogue.

Here are just some examples:

- * Taught Religious School
- * Chanted the Rosh Hashana Haftorah every year
- * Ran the youth art and dance programs
- * Built the ark in the chapel and our Torah stands
- * Constructed cases for our Holocaust Torah
- * Created the mosaics for our holiday wall
- * Built the Purim carnival games and created a life size puppet show
- * Performed many maintenance and repair actions in our building

We are looking to raise $54,000 for the TAS capital improvement fund. If you would like to make a contribution in honor of this dedication it would be greatly appreciated.

If you have questions, please contact Mr. David Makow at 732-567-4139 or by email at fundraising@templeadasshalom.org.
