Co-Presidents' Message

Linda Needel & Wendy Drabinski

We were all set to write an article about the wonderful recent changes - the Spring weather, the Social Hall renovation, the modifications to the Midweek Religious School program and the interest of quite a few rabbis in joining us to become our new rabbi - when sorrow struck our community with the tragic death of Andy Klein. Andy was our champion. When our building permits were being held up, Andy arranged for a hearing, and his testimony is what ultimately got our paperwork moving again. He thought of fundraising ideas and then helped us carry them out. His passion for our temple renovation convinced others to donate who otherwise wouldn't have. He was such a busy man, yet he gave us his time, coming to fundraising meetings, board meetings, building meetings and rabbi search committee meetings. He tutored so many children. He read haftorah during High Holidays. He touched so many of our lives, and we have already been contacted by many congregants wanting to do something to honor him. If you have any ideas, please contact Wendy or Linda. We will announce a meeting in the near future and invite all congregants who are interested in honoring Andy to join us in a brainstorming session. Then we will consult his family to get their input.

Andy helped so many people in so many ways. We can honor his memory by giving back also. The Social Hall renovation was Andy's last project for our temple. Honoring Andy with a donation to the building fund would be a great mitzvah.

May his memory be a blessing.

Wendy and Linda

Spring in the Sanctuary

April brings us another Bat Mitzvah – Annie Heuttel. Please join her and her family on April 12 and 13. The Grade 3 Shabbat will be held on Friday April 5. Many folks' favorite holiday, Pesach, will begin on Friday evening, April 19, with the first seder. There will be no services on that evening, but of course our annual 2nd Night Community Seder will be held the following night at the Temple. It's always a crowd-pleaser, so order your tickets soon!

On a somber note, it is difficult to imagine future services, observances and High Holidays without Andy Klein. He will be sorely missed. As was mentioned a number of times last week, the greatest way to honor Andy's memory is to emulate his behavior: he was involved in many ways with the Temple, large and small; he supported many projects; he worked with our young people. He was, quite simply, a mensch. Andy's leadership pushed us to be our best – to learn more, to be involved with Israel and to enhance our building. We should all look to his actions as an example of tikkun olam, repairing the world.

B'Shalom,

Melissa Brown and Mark Wolkow
RPC Co-Chairs

Rabbi Search Committee

The Rabbi Search Committee continues to make progress. We have reviewed six resumes and conducted two video conference interviews, with the remaining scheduled in the coming weeks. We expect to invite the finalists to shul sometime in April or early May. We look forward to hearing your input as we move forward during this exciting time in our Temple's history.

Adolph Nord Religious School News & Updates

Jennifer Bober & Cheryl Conley

Spring is here and the Religious School calendar is busy.

On Sunday, April 7, we are having Registration Day. This is the day to sign your children up for religious school for the 2019-2020 (5780) school year. This year we will have pre-printed registration forms for all returning students. Thank you to Courtney for all of your hard work getting this accomplished.

Remember: to take advantage of the Early Bird Tuition rate, payment in full must be made on or before registration day. Also, you must be a member in good standing by April 7 to register for religious school. If you know of any Jewish families with children in the community, please share with them information about our shul and school.

On April 14 we will celebrate Passover with a model Seder in our newly remodeled social hall. If you would like to help set up, clean up, cook or serve please speak with Jenn Bober. Parents are invited to join us, but must RSVP.

Each year, each class gets the opportunity to lead the congregation in prayer for a service. This month it will be the third-grade class, leading us on April 5. Services will begin at 7:00 pm. Please join us.

Annie Huettel

חנה

I am honored that my daughter, Annie will be called to the Torah on April 13th to become a Bat Mitzvah. She is the oldest child of Melissa Flossman and Darren Huettel, and the older sister to Ellie. Annie has attended Temple Adas Shalom-Harford Jewish Center since Kindergarten, and is now a 7th grade straight “A” student at Bel Air Middle School.

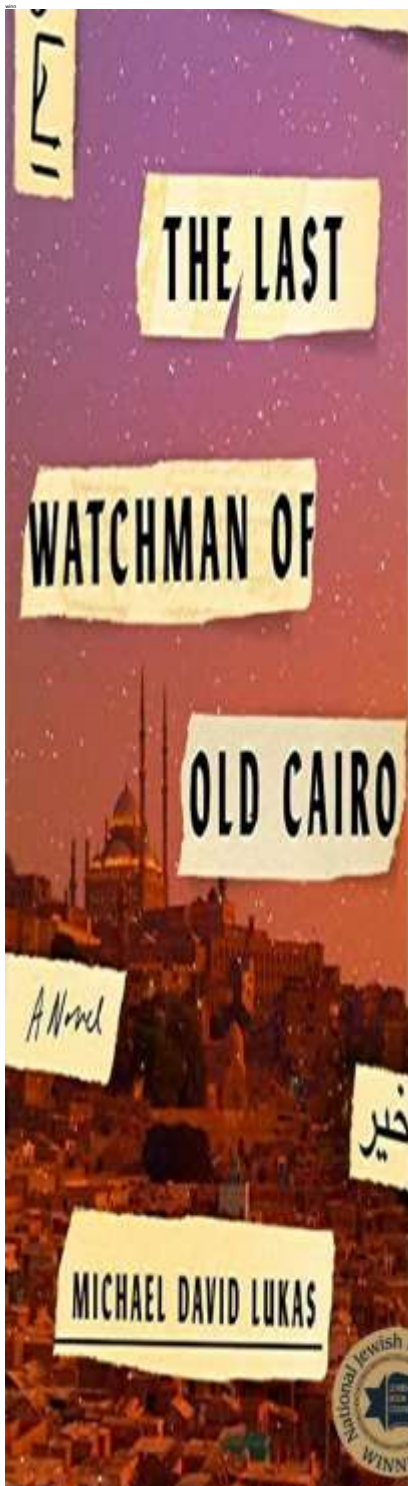

Annie enjoys playing sports, especially Lacrosse and Soccer. Annie plays both sports year round. Annie also likes tennis, golf and swimming. When Annie isn't playing sports she is constantly studying (even on weekends) and hanging out with friends.

Annie is part of the National Junior Honor Society which is a premier organization to recognize outstanding middle level students.

For the community service portion of Annie's tri-mitzahlon project, Annie chose to volunteer at Brightview Senior Living where she helps the activity coordinator implement various activities for its residents. She really enjoys socializing with the residents. For her service to the temple she will be cleaning toys for the HJC Early Learning Center. Annie truly enjoys kids and cannot wait to babysit so helping the HJC Early Learning Center really interested her. For the past 9 years Annie had volunteered for the Ronald McDonald house in Baltimore City with her sister and her father.

For her twinning portion of the tri-mitzahlon project, Annie chose her Grandmother, Olivia Flossman. Olivia studied Judaism while living on the kibbutz Givat HaShlosha in her twenties. The kibbutz was founded in 1920 and is located west of Petah Tikva. By 1950 it was one of the largest in the country with close to 900 members. Annie's mother, Melissa, was born on the Kibbutz and lived there until she was four. Olivia has been a huge support of Annie's Jewish studies through the years and is honored to be twinning with her.

We would sincerely like to thank everyone at the synagogue who has helped Annie during her Jewish studies and helped her prepare for her Bat Mitzvah. Thank you Mark Wolkow for his continuous guidance and training this past year to help prepare Annie for the Friday night and Saturday morning services. Kalina Abrams for her patience and kindness during the study sessions. Thank you Rabbi Gila for meeting, supporting and encouraging Annie. Dr. Paul Ruskin for assisting Annie on preparing the Torah Karaoke portion. Thank you to Mike Mullis and the Choir for accompanying Annie at the Friday night service. Thank you to Annie's B'nai Mitzvah class for the relationships and encouragement that were formed these past years. And last but not least, a huge thank you to all of Annie's teachers who have made such an impact on her life!

Tree of Life

"It Is A Tree Of Life To Those Who Uphold It." Proverbs 3-18

The Tree of Life sculpture in our lobby was done by the renowned synagogue artist Sanford Werfel at his studio in Avenel, NJ. The branches of the tree form the Hebrew words "Etz Chaim". The stones at the roots of the Tree are symbolic of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. The golden leaves may be inscribed to highlight or commemorate such joyous events as births, weddings, anniversaries, graduations, Confirmations, Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, or to honor parents, family or friends. The stones are to memorialize parents, family members or friends.

Share the joy by inscribing your family "simchas" on our synagogue's Tree of Life...a permanent dedication to the meaningful, happy events that touch our lives. A lovely certificate will be sent to those you are honoring.
